Identical letters dated 26 April 2017 from the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Mission of the Syrian Arab Republic to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General and the President of the Security Council

Upon instructions from my Government, I write further to our previous letters detailing the Turkish regime's attacks on the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Syrian Arab Republic. I now wish to bring to your attention the position of the Syrian Government regarding the Turkish regime's latest act of aggression.

The Government of the Syrian Arab Republic condemns in the strongest possible terms the Erdoğan regime's recent flagrant attack on the territorial integrity of Syria. On 25 April 2017, Turkish warplanes bombarded locations in north-east Syria, killing dozens of innocent Syrian civilians.

The Government of the Syrian Arab Republic stresses that the attack contravenes international law, the Charter of the United Nations and the principle of good neighbourly relations. It warns against any actions taken against its sovereignty, territorial integrity or people.

The Government of the Syrian Arab Republic calls on the Secretary-General and the Security Council to condemn this act of aggression and the Turkish regime's pro-terrorist policies.

I should be grateful if the present letter could be issued as a document of the Security Council.
